Thank You for What You Do

- It's important to take a moment and acknowledge just how difficult the last 10 months have been for everyone. We had a pandemic emerge that has completely disrupted our lives in ways no one could have imagined. All of us have friends and family members in the at-risk groups. A number of people have significant others who work the Covid front lines. On top of all that we've had a lot of tumult in both our organization and in our nation. So let's take a moment and applaud the flexibility, dedication and resolve demonstrated by all of our volunteers.
- It's beyond admirable, it is inspiring.
- Thank you for everything you do for scouts.
