

Summertime Leader Check List

- Make sure all dens have leaders for upcoming year
- you can have an existing leader start off the lion year
- If you're a den leader – do you still have an assistant den leader
- Yearly Budget Planned: factor in how many fees (fee increase) will be spent at recharter and how much you need to do what you want to do throughout the year, factor in fundraising
- Does your Pack and dens all have a place to meet throughout the year
- Are there spots on the committee needing to be filled this upcoming year?
- Plan at least the first two months of den meetings.
- Have a schedule for parents of what adventures will be worked on each month
- Do you know what your fundraiser will be and what month you will do it in?
- Have you picked the locations of your outdoor campouts?
- Have you picked locations for indoor overnights (what museums/zoos/battleships)?
- Check Returning leaders' YPT expiration dates (renew it ASAP Sept 1st)
- Plan out themes of each Pack meeting (if yours have themes)
- Roughly plan out which events will happen in each month, with specific dates for at least the first 3 months. Include specific dates for the big events as soon as possible.
- Start off with a bang! When able to return to live scouting, kick off with lots of fun!

Be extra prepared this year- in the aftermath of covid-19.

(having back up plans – ex: if you can't have large group meetings)

Recruit as soon as possible

Promote recruiting all over – not specific to your own unit
(beascout.org)

Keep an eye on the “beascout” invite notifications for your unit regularly.

Check in with your leaders – do they want to switch positions

Do you need to order new supplies for your unit (flag, class B t-shirts etc.)

Promote the summertime activity award for your cubs
