
Station Summaries

- 1. Sled Inspection – Sled is inspected for the provisions on the provisions list and proper attire.
- 2. Iditarod (Sled Race) – Entire patrol participates with one Scout steering from the back, one Scout as “garbage” (laying in the sled) and the remaining members are “sled dogs” (pulling). Race begins with front dog at the starting line, the race whistle is blown, and the patrol races 100 yards to the finish. Race ends when the front dog crosses the finish line. Record time to the nearest tenth of a second.
- 3. Smooshboard – Patrol members’ right feet are tied to one long 2x4; left feet to another. Patrol is timed in walking a course on flat ground.
- 4. Hawk Throw – Scouts throw two hawks (rubber mallets) to knock down milk jugs.
- 5. Fire Building / Flint + Steel – Patrols build a fire lay and spark the fire which burns through the string.
- 6. 2-Man Log Saw – Two patrol members at a time swap off in relay style to remove the end of a log. All Scouts in a patrol must have taken a turn at the sawing before the end is cut off. Otherwise, 30 seconds will be added for each Scout not participating.
- 7. Chilkoot Pass – Patrol is timed moving its sled over and uphill and downhill course.
- 8. Turkey Shoot – Scouts take aim at cast iron frying pans with slings and dried dog food nuggets.
- 9. Cross the Creek– Patrols must quickly bring their patrol across a river covered with ice flows in the shortest time. The Patrols shall cross the creek without stepping in the area designated as water.
- 10. Attack on Fort Russell – Patrols must race to scale the walls of Fort Russell hauling themselves, sled and gear over the wall.
- 11. Snow Snake – From a running start, Scouts throw a six foot long hand crafted stick from a starting line into a hard packed snow or ice trough. The farthest gliding throw wins. See snow snake handout for complete description.
- 12. D. Boone Killed a B’ar – Scouts throw a rope over a suspended “limb” 16 feet off the ground. Tie the rope to a bear sack. Haul it into the air and tie it off to a tree.
- 13. Panning for Gold—Patrol uses a tarp cooperative to toss a “nugget” over a horizontal rope 3 meters above the ground.
- 14. Ice Rescue – Minimum 3 scouts, ideal is 7. Scouts rescue “victim” from the ice.
